Stonehenge—Private Viewing at Sunset

After your pick-up directly from/near your hotel, drive to Bath to visit the Roman Baths and Pump Room. In the late afternoon, visit Lacock for an early evening supper in a 13th Century inn before driving to Stonehenge. As the sun begins to set, enter the stone circle (which is normally roped off to the public) for a unique private viewing, the most dramatic and atmospheric way of visiting Stonehenge. On selected days the tour operates in reverse, beginning with a private viewing of Stonehenge before it opens to the public in the morning, so we see the stones in the dazzling morning light. This is followed by our visits to Lacock and Bath.
